Your Imam

Shaykh Dr. AbdulRazzak Junaid

Dr. AbdulRazzak Junaid serves as an Assistant Imam and Youth Department Head at the Valley Ranch Islamic Center (VRIC) in Irving, Texas. Raised in California, he previously served as an Imam at the Islamic Center of Nashville, Tennessee, bringing years of spiritual counseling, youth mentorship, and Islamic leadership to his community.

Dr. AbdulRazzak Junaid holds a B.A. in Sharia (Islamic University of Madinah), an M.A. in Fiqh (Islamic University of Minnesota), and a Ph.D. in Uloom ul-Quran (American Open University). Firmly believing that the best teachers remain lifelong students, he is completing a second Master's degree in Hadith and was recently selected for the Mujtahid Program under Shaykh Abdullah al-Judai – an advanced fiqh and ijtehad training program for council scholars. Combined with traditional ijazat in Qira'at and licensure as a mufti, his extensive background enables him to offer deep, accessible spiritual guidance for pilgrims undertaking sacred journeys.
